Military Victim Grievance Process

Initial Options
Utilize Command Resources
Chain of Command
Law Enforcement (PMO or NCIS)
Chaplain
Uniformed Victim Advocate (UVA) or Civilian Victim Advocate (VA)
Victim and Witness Assistance Coordinator (VWAC)
File Legal Assistance Attorney[1]
Next Set of Options
Request Mast[2]
and/or
with the Equal Opportunity Represent
and/or
Inspector General (IG) Complain
and/or
Congressional Representa
Final Option if Complaint concerns a Superior File an Article 138 or NAVREGS 1150, Complaint of Wrongs against a Superior[5]

nce cannot give advice on matters against the government or command, but can refer you to the proper organization for those matters.
t can be forwarded through the chain of command as either an open or sealed complaint. If the complaint concerns matters which are a part of e or judicial proceedings, then your superior can deny your request mast until the proceedings are complete.
mplaints of sexual harassment, hazing, discrimination, hostile work environment, or inappropriate behavior.
neral complaints and reprisal or whistle blower complaints.
only available if all other means of addressing the complaint have been exhausted.